Of Akron.New York has just had another "race riot." It is needless to say that Akron is very much ashamed of New York.Arkansas went Democratic by the usual plurality yesterday and tomorrow our Republican neighbors will hear from Vermont. After that, for the radicals of both sides, it will be all off except the shouting.Akron's workmen yesterday gave to the people one of the finest parades they had ever witnessed in the city.
The parade showed what the workmen can do in any line of human endeavor when they stand together and cease working at cross purposes.Now that a special grand jury has been called, there should be no unreasonable limitation upon the time given to it in which to complete its investigation. A thorough investigation is wanted and the people will be patient while this work is going on.In accordance with the suggestions made by the Democrat last Tuesday a special grand jury has just been empaneled to investigate the late riot and the charges growing out of it.
The Democrat believes that by calling

The special grand jury at this time Judge Kohler has taken the right step, for it is the best assurance that could be given that the rights of the individual and property are safe in Akron.Fortunate for Akron the hysterical talk of organizing a local law and order league has been permitted to die out. The best law and order league obtainable is the league of public officials to make an honest and fearless enforcement of the laws enacted for the protection of the lives and property of the people. It is greatly to their credit that Prosecutor Wanamaker and Judge Kohler and all other officials concerned seem determined to enforce the laws in this manner.Within the last two months every dollar of the immense war revenue derived from the stamp taxes and increased taxation, with an extra outlay in addition, has been spent by the Administration upon the Chinese and Philippine wars. There is a limit to the patience with which the people will submit to this oppressive taxation for the purpose of permitting the Administration to carry on its expensive military operations and exploitations in far off countries. If they do not protest against the continuance of the burden when they go to the polls next November, it will be because their capacity to endure the extortions has made them indifferent to what it being done.

20,000

People Attended Sixth Annual Field DayOf Knights of St. John—Rain Spoiled the Day's Program.Fully 20,000 people were in attendance at the sixth annual field day of the Knights of St. John at Myers lake, Canton, on Labor Day.Delegations from Akron, Alliance, Massillon, Canaan Dover and other cities were present in large numbers.The Akron delegation composed of over 300 people left the Union depot on the 9:05 Valley train. When they reached Canton rain was coming down in torrents, but notwithstanding the local Knights formed in line and paraded to the business portion of Canton.Rain prevented the carrying out of the forenoon program. At noon the regiment of Knights formed in line for inspection, but again it commenced raining and the officers gave the order to disband and seek shelter.Later in the afternoon the program was taken up, but owing to the wet condition of the grounds at the lake, many of the sports were abandoned.Allen Halverson of West Prairie, Wis., says: "People come ten miles to buy Foley's Kidney Cure," while J. A.
Spero of Helmer, Ind., says: "It is the medical wonder of the age."

Monday's Heavy Rain

Interfered With the Second Annual Picnic.Two Thousand People at Randolph Park.Was Impossible to Give Program of Sports.The Parade Moved as Scheduled—How the Day Was Spent.The rain yesterday in a degree tended to put a damper on the second annual reunion of the C. M. B. A. of Northern Ohio at Randolph park. In spite of this fact, however, over 2,000 people were at the resort.As a result of the rain the grounds were muddy and no program of sports was given. The young people enjoyed dancing both afternoon and evening.
Members of the various councils and friends began to arrive in Akron early yesterday morning.The parade formed on N. Main and Tailmadge sts., at 10:30 a. m.The parade marched south on Howard to Main, south on Main to Exchange, thence counter marched north

Louisville C. M. B. A.
Kent C. M. B. A.
St. Mary's C. M. B. A., Akron.Youngstown East End band.
Youngstown C. M. B. A.Part of the paraders were protected from the rain with white umbrellas.
The parade moved south on Howard to Mill, east on Mill to Main, then countering marched on Main until Labor parade had passed, when cars were boarded for Randolph park. Many were inconvenienced because the rain flooded the Rapid Transit tracks on Furnace st., which delayed traffic for two hours.This picnic also marked the closing of Randolph for the season.

How Bright's Disease Starts.

Indigestion, biliousness, blood poisoned with urea and uric acid, (which should have been excreted by the kidneys,) rheumatic pains in nerves and joints, causing irritation of the kid-back, mark sure approach of Bright's disease. Do not delay taking Foley's Kidney Cure, for it makes the kidneys right. Take no substitute.J. M. Laffer, J. Lamparter & Co.,
